

Operating hours

First trains about 05:30

Last trains
about 23:15 – 00:15

Peak frequency
2–3 min

Off-peak
5–7 min

First and last train times are set per station and per direction — there is no single network-wide last train. Check the poster at your station if it is tight.

The lines

 North South Line (NSL)	Jurong East – Marina South Pier	27 stations ~65 min
 East West Line (EWL)	Pasir Ris – Tuas Link	35 stations ~85 min
 North East Line (NEL)	HarbourFront – Punggol Coast	17 stations ~35 min
 Circle Line (CCL)	closed loop	33 stations ~75 min
 Downtown Line (DTL)	Bukit Panjang – Expo	35 stations ~69 min
 Thomson-East Coast Line (TEL)	Woodlands North – Bayshore	27 stations ~58 min
 Bukit Panjang LRT (BP LRT)	Choa Chu Kang – Bukit Panjang	13 stations ~25 min
 Sengkang LRT (SK LRT)	Sengkang – Sengkang	14 stations ~22 min
 Punggol LRT (PG LRT)	Punggol – Punggol	15 stations ~22 min

Fares (from 27 December 2025)

Adult, card	S$1.28 – S$2.57
Tap in before 07:45 (weekdays)	50 cents off any fare
Student	S$0.52 – S$0.78
Senior / persons with disabilities	S$0.69 – S$1.07
Singapore Tourist Pass	1 day S$17 · 2 days S$24 · 3 days S$29
Adult monthly pass	S$122

Fares are distance based: tap in and out, and the whole journey is charged once. There are no single-trip tickets. Use an EZ-Link or SimplyGo card, a contactless bank card or your phone. Changing lines never costs extra.

At night

There is no night MRT — and no night buses either. The NightRider and Nite Owl services were discontinued. After the last train: taxi or Grab.